INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members XT Capital Partners, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of XT Capital Partners, LLC (the "Company") as of December 31, 2004. This statement of financial condition is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this statement of financial condition based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial condition presentation. We believe that our audit of the statement of financial condition provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of XT Capital Partners, LLC as of December 31, 2004, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the statement of financial condition taken as a whole. The supplementary information listed in the accompanying table of contents is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the statement of financial condition, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Regulation 1.10 under the Commodity Exchange Act. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the statement of financial condition and, in our opinion, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the statement of financial condition taken as a whole.

Roseland, New Jersey February 17, 2005 Rothstein, Kass & Congrany, P.C.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Nature of operations

XT Capital Partners, LLC (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD). The Company markets and distributes specialized investment management strategies for institutional investors.

The Company is an introducing broker registered with the Commodities Futures Trading Commission (CFTC).

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Equipment

Equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The Company provides for depreciation on the straight-line method as follows:

Assets	Estimated Useful Life
Computer equipment Furniture	3 Years 7 Years

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes advisory revenues in accordance with the provisions of the respective agreements.

Income Taxes

No provision for income taxes has been recorded because the Company is a limited liability company. Accordingly, the individual members report their share of the Company's income or loss on their income tax returns. The Company is subject to the New York City Unincorporated Business Tax ("UBT").

The Company complies with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" which requires an asset and liability approach to financial accounting and reporting for income taxes. Deferred income tax asset and liabilities are computed for differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on the enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce the deferred income tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

3. Equipment

Details of equipment at December 31, 2004 are as follows:

Computer equipment Furniture	•	$	25,257 3,608
Less accumulated depreciation			28,865 10,416
		$	18,449

4. Exemption from Rule 15c3-3

The Company is exempt from the SEC Rule 15c3-3 pursuant to the exemption provision of such paragraph (k)(2)(i) and, therefore, is not required to maintain a "Special Reserve Bank Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers."

5. Concentrations

The Company maintains all of its cash in a financial institution, which at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any loss in this account and believes it is not subject to any significant credit risk.

During 2004, the Company provided services to one major customer, resulting in approximately 84% of the Company's total revenues.

6. Commitments

The Company leases office space under a lease which expires December 2005. The lease requires the Company to pay real estate tax escalations and other costs associated with the office space. The Company has the option to renew the lease for no less than six months from the expiration of the lease. Aggregate future minimum annual rental payments in the year subsequent to December 31, 2004 is $90,000.

7. Retirement plan

The Company maintains a Qualified Retirement Plan for its members. Company contributions are made at the discretion of the members and are subject to limitations provided by the Internal Revenue Code. The Company made a contribution to the plan of $162,000 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

8. Net capital requirement

The Company, as a member of the NASD, is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1. This rule requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1, and that equity capital may not be withdrawn if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. The Company is also subject to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission's minimum financial requirements which require that the Company maintain net capital, as defined, equal to the greater of its requirements under Regulation 1.17 under the Commodity Exchange Act or Rule 15c3-1. At December 31, 2004, the Company's net capital was approximately $130,000, which was approximately $125,000 in excess of its minimum requirement of $5,000 under SEC Rule 15c3-1 and $100,000 in excess of its minimum requirement of $30,000, under Regulation 1.17 of the Commodity Exchange Act.
